STAY: 2 Nights | 3 Days

BEST ENJOYED: September - November

Discover Gaston County this autumn, where vibrant fall colors, outdoor adventures, and local flavors await. Our Fall Getaway Package offers the perfect mix of scenic trails, historic sites, family fun, and seasonal experiences.

FRIDAY:

Afternoon: Check in and unwind, then enjoy a relaxing walk or scenic drive to soak in the fall colors.

Evening: Dinner at a local eatery and explore seasonal events or fall-themed festivals happening nearby.

SATURDAY:

Morning: Hike Crowders Mountain State Park - choose the Pinnacle Trail for breathtaking fall vistas or an easier forest loop.

Late Morning: Visit Kings Mountain State Park & National Military Park - stroll the Battlefield Trail and explore longer trails amid historic sites.

Afternoon: Head to Whitewater Center for paddling, mountain biking, or zip-lining surrounded by autumn foliage.

Evening: Sip craft beverages along the Ridgeline Craft Beverage Trail, including local breweries, distilleries, and vineyards.

SUNDAY:

Morning: Visit Daniel Stowe Conservancy - wander gardens and trails, enjoy seasonal workshops, or family activities.

Late Morning: Choose your adventure: Schiele Museum - explore wildlife habitats, planetarium shows, and interactive exhibits.

Lineberger Maple Spring Farm - enjoy hayrides, pumpkin picking, and local farmers' market treats.

Afternoon: Wrap up your getaway with a scenic stroll or last-minute local shopping before heading home.

FALL WEATHER

Fall in Gaston County is crisp, colorful, and perfect for outdoor adventure. Daytime temperatures usually range from the mid-60s to low 70s°F (18-22°C), while evenings can drop into the 40s and 50s°F (5-15°C). Mornings often start cool and misty, so layering is key. Fall also brings occasional rain showers, so a light waterproof jacket or umbrella can come in handy. The vibrant fall foliage usually peaks from late October to early November, creating stunning landscapes everywhere you go.

Planning a fall getaway to Gaston County? Here's everything you need to know to make the most of your weekend. From what to pack to where to eat (and even what to do if it rains), we've got you covered.

INSIDER TIPS

- Peak leaf season is late October through early November — bring your camera!
- Weekends fill up quickly, so book your hotel early.
- Many outdoor spots are dog-friendly, so your furry friends can join in the fun.

WHAT TO BRING

- Layers: Cool mornings, warm afternoons, and chilly evenings mean packing a light jacket or sweater.
- Hiking Shoes: Trails are at their best with fall leaves — you'll want sturdy shoes for exploring.
- Camera/Phone: The views along the Catawba River and in our parks are postcard-worthy.
- Reusable Water Bottle: Stay hydrated while you're on the trails.
